

Public Relations/Marketing Internship

Job Description: TRINDGROUP, an Auburn-based public relations, marketing, and design agency, seeks ambitious and passionate candidates interested in gaining real-world agency experience for a public relations/marketing internship beginning in the summer of 2025. Ideal majors include public relations, journalism, communication, and marketing, but all majors are welcome to apply.

TRINDGROUP is an industry-specific PR/marketing/design agency that provides branding and identity, campaign marketing, social media, web and interactive design, analytics intelligence, traditional advertising, and marketing solutions for our clients. The public relations/marketing intern will work closely with the team to assist with client projects in many of the areas listed above.

TRINDGROUP's approach is to utilize our team's vast knowledge of communication and visual strategy to unite B2B industrial and manufacturing markets with target audiences and audience sub-segments through public relations, marketing and creative design.

What You'll Do:

- Assist with social media management (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest, LinkedIn, Youtube, etc.) for clients by creating, publishing and analyzing content and content calendars
- Conduct general industry research
- Targeted research for clients including audits and competitive analyses
- Write and edit copy for blogs, emails, ads, web and collateral pieces
- Update Google My Business for clients
- Interpret monthly website performance data using Google Analytics
- Write and distribute press releases to media contacts
- Learn useful public relations platforms such as Meltwater and Mailchimp
- Contribute ideas and brainstorm new marketing campaigns and brand identity strategies

What You'll Learn:

- The inner workings of an agency
- How to work in an account service role
- How to conduct yourself professionally during client meetings
- Strategies for optimizing social media for business
- The fast pace at which a campaign comes to life

What You'll Need:

- Motivation, ambition, and a self-starter attitude
- Confidence in writing skills
- Experience with AP style
- Creative critical thinking skills
- Knowledge of basic social media platforms (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest, YouTube)
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office and Google Drive Suite
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Strong organizational skills

Serious candidates may submit cover letters and writing samples to kelli.hartsock@trindgroup.com.

You can also apply via our website <https://trindgroup.com/careers/internships/>